THE NEXT FIVE YEARS)
(OPENED MAY 7, 2013))

NOTICE OF PUBLIC RATES AND RELIABILITY DISCUSSION FORUMS AND COMMENT SESSIONS

In accordance with Delaware Public Service Commission Order No. 8363, the Commission Staff and Delmarva Power Company will hold Public Interactive Discussion Forums and Comment Sessions to solicit input from the public in the Commission's investigation into

- the level of reliability that customers are currently receiving,
- the level of reliability that customers believe that they require,
- the amount of money that customers are willing to pay for that reliability,
- the affordability to customers of the current and proposed Delmarva Power rates, and
- the necessity of increasing rates, and the ability of customers to pay for those rates, that may be required if the Company makes the $397M in incremental reliability investment it has proposed over the next five years.

This is the public opportunity for Delmarva Power customers to share their views on Delmarva's proposal to increase reliability and the associated rates that may be required.

The Public Interactive Discussion Forums and Comment Sessions will be held at the following times and locations:
